KEYNOTE SPEAKER John R. Graham

John R. Graham is the D. Richard Mead Professor of Finance at the Fuqua School of Business at Duke University. He holds a Ph.D. in finance from Duke University. His past work experience includes teaching at the University of Utah and seven years working as a senior economist at Virginia Electric and Power Company.

Dr. Graham has published more than 60 articles in many leading journals including the Journal of Finance, Journal of Financial Economics, Review of Financial Studies, Quarterly Journal of Economics, and the Journal of Accounting and Economics, on topics including corporate taxes, cost of capital, capital structure, financial reporting, and payout policy. He served as co-editor of the Journal of Finance from 2006 to 2012 and as associate editor for the Journal of Finance, Review of Financial Studies, Finance Research Letters and Financial Management, and has served on the board of directors of the American Finance Association, Western Finance Association, and Financial Management Association. He is currently president-elect of the Financial Management Association and has been president of the Western Finance Association. He is also a Fellow of the Financial Management Association and a research associate of the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Dr. Graham has won the Jensen Prize for the best corporate finance paper published in the Journal of Financial Economics and the Brattle Prize for the best corporate finance paper published in the Journal of Finance. He has also won numerous best teacher awards. His teaching focuses on corporate finance, taxes, mergers and acquisitions, and corporate restructuring. His simulated corporate marginal tax rates are widely used and are an important input in the Duff and Phelps cost of capital publications.

Dr. Graham has served as area coordinator of Duke's finance group and as co-director of the Duke Center for Financial Excellence. Since 1997, he has been the director of the Global Business Outlook (http://www.cfosurvey.org), a quarterly CFO survey that assesses the business climate and topical economic issues around the world. He appears regularly in the media to discuss the survey and corporate sector. He is a lead author on the textbooks Corporate Finance: Linking Theory to What Companies Do (Cengage) and Introduction to Corporate Finance (Cengage).
